From the Director's Chair

Joy to the World, the Lord has Come! Christmas is a special time of year for so many reasons. It's a time to be with family we don't see as much, there's a magic to the air you just can't explain, we get to spoil family and friends and tell them what they mean to us. All of these things are wonderful special things. But let me encourage you to remember the true meaning of Christmas. Over 2,000 years ago a baby was born in a stable. In the poorest of conditions. This baby was different, he was special, and he was God. This baby no matter what you believe changed the world. He brought new understanding, new ideas, and a movement like no other. Jesus was and is the reason to celebrate. Some believe he was a prophet, some believe he was a teacher, some believe he was just a man, but no matter what you believe, the evidence that surrounds his presence here on earth tells us that he was nothing less than a miracle. Take this time to dig into your faith, understand this man named Jesus, just start with his humble beginnings and go from there. You might just be surprised at who you discover. One way to start your journey is to visit a church this Christmas season (and beyond). The doors are open and you are welcome here.

All my best,
Melissa
