

Children & Hunger

Food Insecurity

Food insecurity is the term used to describe families that are unable to consistently access adequate amounts of nutritious food that are necessary for a healthy life.

A family is food insecure when this is their reality 7 out of 12 months a year.

Health

Insufficient nutrition puts children at risk for illness and weakens their immune system. It affects their ability to learn, grow, and fight infections. It often causes an increase in an array of behavior problems including: fighting, hyperactivity, aggression, anxiety, mood swings, and bullying.

Rockdale County

13.5% of families in Rockdale County live below the poverty line.

Georgia

Georgia ranks 15th highest for child poverty. Georgia ranks 12th highest in overall poverty.

1 in 5 children in Georgia live on the brink of hunger and that number is growing.

Together

One Child...

Remember when being a child meant wondering whether your neighbor could come out and play? Today, the reality for many children is a constant awareness of their hunger. Shelley's Kids is committed to feeding the hungry children in our community so that they can get back to worrying about the things a child should be worried about.

Help us feed these children. We can't do it alone and we were not meant to. God intended for us to work together. Together we can begin to change the reality for the children in our community. We can begin feeding the hungry, one child at a time. Let's break the cycle of poverty in Rockdale county.

- Get involved in Saturday morning food delivery by contacting Harry Breitinger at 678-464-5022.

In Honor of Shelley Goodroe

Shelley's Kids was started by the Main Street Crew in honor of our dear friend Shelley Goodroe. Shelley was a teacher at JH House for 28 years and in that time impacted many students.

What We Believe...

We believe that compassion for the poor, the fatherless, and the widows is central to our faith.

Too often we sit around looking for ways to serve God. But the proper question isn't where can I make a difference? The proper question is where is God working and how can I get on board? God is working in the midst of the men and women of Main Street CREW and through Shelley's Kids. Join God's movement among this community!
