I have heard the cries of mothers in our school that long for a place to come and talk with other mothers. They want to know that their child is not the only one that colors on the wall and spills things just so it can be cleaned up for them. CFUMC Preschool would like to offer an opportunity for moms to talk, bond, and study God's word together. Because this is a new group, we want to make it accessible to as many people who would like to come. There are a couple of options we have for meeting: during preschool hours, weeknight (charge for childcare), Sunday mornings at 11am. Is this something that you have been looking for?
Please let me know via email, if you are interested and when you could meet. I would like to have the group started by October.
